Growing Understanding, One Story At a Time

This is Anne Frank. She was a young girl.

Anne lived with her family in a big town. The town was called Am-ster-dam.

A bad man was the boss of a country called Ger-ma-ny.

His name was Hi-tler.

Hitler did not like some people. He did not like the Jews.

Anne and her family were Jews.

Hitler's men came to get the Jews. Anne's family had to hide. They went into a secret place. It was at the back of a house.

Anne and her family were very quiet. They could not go out. They could not make a noise in the day.

Anne had a book. It was a di-a-ry. She wrote in it. She wrote about her life.
She wrote how she felt.

Anne and her family hid for a long time. One day, the bad men found them. They took Anne and her family away.

Anne died in a camp. It was a sad time. But we can still read her words. Her di-a-ry is im-por-tant. It tells us what happened.
